A CIVIC FEDERATION.

A Movement Under Way to Organize in This City.

TOPEKA IS TO HAVE ONE.

Many Prominent Citizens Favor It—The Negligence of the Public Authorities Encourages the Adoption of the Plan.

Much has been said in these columns recently, about a new municipal organization to aid the enforcement of law. Topeka is to have a Civic Federation. The initial steps have been taken and petitions for such an organization have been drawn up and will be circulated for signatures. These petitions constitute a call for a mass meeting to effect an organization, but the date has not yet been fixed.

The project has as its supporters such men as P. L. Bonebrake and Rev. C. M. Sheldon. Civic Federations have been organized in New York, Chicago and many other eastern cities. It is the object of the Federation to keep the control of municipalities out of the pale of partisan politics and to see that the laws are enforced. The existence of disreputable houses and the disregard of officials for the enforcement of the law in Topeka, is the cause of the present move.

A JOURNAL reporter called upon P. L. Bonebrake and asked him if he was in favor of an organization in Topeka.

"Yes," replied he, "I am in favor of the organization of a civic federation or something of the kind and will do all I can to help it along. I understand that steps are being taken to organize here and it will have my hearty support."

Rev. C. M. Sheldon said: "I do not wish to be understood as the originator of the proposed organization, but I intend to give it my assistance. It is the object of the civic federation to remove the municipality from the control of the political machine. In my mind I do not see how the organization can be made a success unless it includes men of all political parties; and care must be taken in the first steps, to secure the co-operation of the staunch men of the city. It must be made up of men who are not in active politics, men who do not expect to hold office, such as college professors, teachers, ministers and business men. It will be the enemy of the machine politician of all parties and care must be exercised to keep it out of his control.

"These societies are in their infancy and we can not tell whether they will be entirely successful or not. The society in New York has done much good but it has not been thoroughly tried and the same is true in Chicago. Tammany is a great organization and it has its little Tammany in every city in the United States. This Federation will be a Tammany—that is it will be founded on the same plan but the methods of that great organization will be used to do good.

"If a man's house were on fire and the fire company failed or refused to check the flames and the neighbors came in with buckets and put out the fire, that would be in line with the purposes of the Federation in reference to crime. The officers fail to check crime and this society comes in and takes the matter out of their hands and crushes it out.

"In Topeka there is a serious condition. We have two departments of government. I may take a matter before the county attorney and he refers me to the chief of police. The chief of police will refer me back to the county attorney and there is a constant attempt to shift the responsibility. The police department is controlled by the state while the city and county officers are not. I have talked to at least 100 men who are in favor of an organization of this kind and I see no reason why it can not be made a success."

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

They Are in Convention at the First Congregational Church.

The Sunday schools of Shawnee county met in annual convention at the First Congregational church this afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be in session until tomorrow evening.

There will be several hundred delegates and visitors in attendance and the general theme of the meeting is, "Improvement in all Departments of Work." A splendid programme has been arranged and the musical part of it will be under the direction of Prof. Samuel Tracy.

There will be four sessions, this afternoon and evening, and tomorrow morning at 8:30 and tomorrow afternoon at 1:45 o'clock.

One of the principal features of the convention will be the address by Bishop John H. Vincent on "The Teaching Process," which will be delivered at 8:30 o'clock this evening.

Several prominent members of the Sunday schools of the county will be present and address the convention on different subjects.

All who are interested in the work are asked to be present. J. H. Foucht is the county president, and Thomas H. Bain is the county secretary.

MR. TROUTMAN'S PARODY.

The Republican Candidate Has One That Makes a Great Hit.

James A. Troutman, the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, has a good parody on "Make Me a Child Again, Just for Tonight," that he frequently makes use of in his political speeches, and it never fails to make a hit. The poem is in part:

Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight,
Make me a Populist, just for tonight;
Let the black flag of despair be unfurled,
Harken the lights in this fiddly old world,
Give me a whirlwind of trouble and strife,
Curse with darkness the bright side of life,
People the future with phantoms of woe,
Feed me on crow, mister, feed me on crow.

Pause, Father Time, and throw open the gate,
I am so weary of feeling first rate,
Pasture me out where the picking is short,
Squeeze me with hunger and wear me out,
Feed me to sit in contentment all day
Having reform, while my neighbors make hay.
Fill up my head with fast moving wheels,
Then I shall know how a Populist feels.

OLD SETTLERS' REUNION.

The Pioneer Church Workers Will Discuss Old Times Next Week.

Mrs. J. G. Wood, secretary of the Pioneer Congregational society, has issued an address in which she explains that the society is intended to include not only Congregationalists but pioneer church workers in Topeka of other denominations. She says:

"The Pioneer society of the First Congregational church, consisting of the original covenant signers, only seven of whom are living, have appointed this meeting. And as the early history of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches were united by their being, during territorial years, one church, when all denominations met and worshipped together in all church work, it is urgently requested of those churches that the society is intended to include, shall be present at that meeting and talk freely of those days, during the time devoted to reminiscences by old settlers.

The reunion in question will be held next Tuesday, Oct. 9. There will be two sessions, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening, as follows:

Afternoon—Organ solo, Prof. J. S. Slick; prayer, Rev. Peter McVicar; address of welcome, Mr. A. D. Gray; response, Rev. Louis Bodwell; music, Pioneer Quartette; reminiscences, members of Pioneer society; reminiscences, old settlers.

From 6 to 8, reception and supper by Endeavorers.

SHE SAID PROCEED

And the Court Proceeded as Mrs. Blank Said.

In the police court this week a fat woman was a witness in a case and she had just been sworn.

"State your name to the court," said Prosecutor Hingate.

"Young man," she replied with cutting scorn, "my name is of no consequence. Proceed. There are reporters present."

Mr. Hingate muttered something about "very well, madam," and did "proceed" as demanded.

TWO SPEECHES.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster Closes Her Work in the Kansas Campaign.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster made two speeches in Topeka yesterday at Hamilton hall—one at 3 p. m. and the other in the evening. Mrs. Foster was introduced by Mrs. S. A. Thurston at the afternoon meeting and by R. B. Welch in the evening. The attendance in the afternoon was not large, but in the evening the large hall was filled and the speaker was frequently interrupted by applause.

Mrs. Foster's evening speech was devoted to the workingmen. She said that the prosperity of the working classes originated with the protective system.

This is Mrs. Foster's last speech in Kansas in this campaign. She leaves today for Colorado and will devote the remainder of the time to the campaign in that state. She is one of the strongest of the Republican speakers and is in great demand.

ONE OF TOPEKA'S CLUBS.

What It Costs to Become a St. Ananias Follower.

The St. Ananias club is the most exclusive club in Topeka. Its membership is limited to fifty and its membership roll is always full. Such men as Judge Klingman, ex-Mayor Coffran, Maj. Wm. Sims, Col. James Burgess, Eugene F. Ware, Sam Ridges and other just as well known men belong to the club. When the club was first organized the initiation fee was $10 but when the present rooms were furnished the rate was raised and it now costs $50 to get in and then the applicant for membership must wait until there is a vacancy, which does not often occur. The club was organized as a whist club but the members who spend their spare minutes at the rooms in the Stormont building play other games and always enjoy themselves.
